A COURSE IN MIRACLES

*This is a required course.
Only the time you take it is voluntary.
Free will does not mean that you can establish the curriculum.
It means only that you can elect what you want to take at a given time.*

*This course does not aim at teaching the meaning of love...
for that is beyond what can be taught.
It does aim, however, at removing the blocks to the awareness of love's presence, which is your natural inheritance.*

*The opposite of love is fear...
But what is all-encompassing can have no opposite.
Nothing real can be threatened.
Nothing unreal exists.
Herein lies the peace of God.*

Sit quietly (with me) and look upon the world you see, and tell yourself: “The real world is not like this. It has no buildings and there are no streets where people walk alone and separate. There are no stores where people buy an endless list of things they do not need. It is not lit with artificial light, and night comes not upon it. There is no day that brightens and grows dim. There is no loss. Nothing is there but shines, and shines forever.”

The world you see must be denied, for sight of it is costing you a different kind of vision. Listen. You cannot see both worlds, for each of them involves a different kind of seeing, and depends on what you cherish.

Look.

The sight of one is possible because you have denied the other. Why? Both are not true, yet either one will seem as real to you as the amount to which you hold it dear. And yet their power is not the same, because their real attraction to you is unequal.

You do not really want the world you see, for it has disappointed you since time began. The homes you built have never sheltered you. The roads you have made have led you nowhere, and no city that you built has withstood the crumbling assault of time. Nothing you made but has the mark of death upon it. Hold it not dear, for it is old and tired and ready to return to dust even as you made it. This aching world has not the power to touch the living world at all. You could not give it that, and so although you turn in sadness from it, you cannot find in it the road that leads away from it into another world.

Look.

Yet the real world has the power to touch you even here, because you love it. And what you call with love will come to you. Love always answers, being unable to deny a call for help, or not to hear the cries of pain that rise to it from every part of this strange world you made but do not want. All that you need to give this world away in glad exchange for what you did not make is willingness to learn the one you made is false.

And the idea that you would entertain with me, in a continuing new factor of self association about a prospect of being able, within the visions of the offering of our correspondence of this old world out here, to recognize in a process of conversion of our minds that we can see a different world.

I am glad you joined me this morning and I hope it is alright that I opened with a demonstration of the possibility that you can obtain a real world, are you listening, simply by asking for it. Let's look together at it, just fundamentally in the idea that I am teaching to you a re-vision of what we term mind training of the conceptual idea of the falsity of this world, by offering you, in its entirety, another world. Query— Would you like to see another world? It's not like the one that's in your dream. I am in your dream now, as what you term the Master Teacher, within a reflection of light that corresponds to an increasing demonstration of an alternative that's available to you, within the reflection of light.

That's why I came this morning. I arrived here, as many of you know, and are now practicing with me from another world, I can't tell you what that world is like, but I can tell you it's not like this. I can't tell you how you can obtain it, except by the totality of your necessity to reject the idea of the reflections that you're getting in correspondence with what is not true about you.

So what I am offering you on this satellite, light containment, that's beginning to reflect back to you, within your own dream of aggregation of sequential time, is the certainty that at this moment, if we choose, we can have a new perspective, or reflection, of ourselves. As you know I teach the entirety of the correspondence of the resurrected mind of my savior Jesus Christ, to demonstrate it in an extremely emphatic way, the manner in which I could take the aggregation of my body formulation through the light and love that we share with each other, and get a true reflection of what I am. Ok? The reason you're beginning to see the light so readily, is somewhere within the prospect of the opening of this script of conversion, you have begun to recognize yourself in these alternatives.

We are going to pray together, because the solution to your problem is always prayer. It's as simple as Thy Will be done, and it will be on earth as it is in Heaven, with the realization that the reflection you have been getting in your will, you no longer want. Together now.

And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

I need but look upon all things that seem to hurt me, and with perfect certainty assure myself, "God wills that I be saved from this," and merely watch them disappear. I need but keep in mind my Father's Will for me is only happiness, to find that only happiness has come to me. And I need but remember that God's Love surrounds His Son and keeps his sinlessness forever perfect, to be sure that I am saved and safe forever in His Arms. Why? I am the Son He loves. And I am saved because God in His mercy wills it be so.

"Father, Your holiness is mine. Your Love created me, and made my sinlessness forever part of You. I have no guilt nor sin in me, for there is none in You."

In the recognition of that prayer, for us together, was the immediacy of the availability of the conversion of the factoring that you have heretofore utilized to demonstrate a condition of an idea of light that represented the illusion of your body formulation.

In effect, what we are saying in this Course in Miracles, in the conversion of the concepts of the power of your mind to express the entirety of an alternative, is that you are nothing but a condition (condition) of a reflection of light, contained within the formulation of thoughts that you have about yourself, reflected within a continuum of time, being demonstrated by the fracturedism of light that gives you a falsity about the true nature of who you really are, and that anywhere, within the proceedings of the power of your mind to change your mind about who you are, you can see a whole new reflection of yourself, that will guarantee you, at this moment, a better idea about the power of light that is inherent, concerning the relationship that we formulate, within this association of light form, in order to demonstrate the containment of our self, in the littleness of the dark form of light that cannot give us a true reflection of who we really are.

In the power of our Course in Miracles, miracles are taught as both light, that is light of the idea of the entirety of the Universe, contained within a single mind, and power, which is an indication of the assumption of the inevitability, that all power is indeed given individually to you, in Heaven and in earth. Look quickly with me, just for a couple of minutes about what the power of light really is. Remember:

Miracles are seen in light.

It is important to remember that miracles and vision necessarily go together. And this needs to be repeated in this entirety of lesson. Why? It is a central idea in this brand new thought system that you found. Why? The miracle of light is always there. Its presence is not caused by your vision; its absence is not the result of your failure to see. It is only your awareness of miracles that is affected. You will see them in the light; and you will not see them in the darkness.

And I am back with you for just a moment to inquire, now you, in the idea you have about your self, as you avail your self within your consciousness idea of who you think you are, in this perspective of time, if you will make a fundamental allowance that the mind construct of your self, in our relationships with each other, is nothing but a limitation we impose on our self in a reflection of our determination, are you listening, not to recognize the singularity of the ideas of light that are reflected back to each other. Why? The miracle of light is going to go on in the Universe, my dear brother, there is a single causation for all of this Universe eternally, and that alternative, in it's entirety is in your mind, denial of it, within the perspective of the possibility of space/time location that will give you an objective idea of separation, within the correspondence of light, is very simply why you are here.

So the practice of the success that you are beginning to experience with me, at this time, within this very short interlude, is to offer you, here and now, I am back into this cycle for a minute, and I am going to be here now and offer you a continuing better reflection of your self. Practice, we are reflecting together the power of alternative, within our own minds. Now, if you'll accept this from me, I will show you, and intend to show you, inevitably, in our found correspondence of power, a new reflection of your self. I am very much aware that you're looking at me as a perspective of an objective body idea, contained within the notion that the illusionary nature of your self, in correspondence with what you think you are, is giving you back in a specific location of your self, ideas of pertainment that couldn't possibly be true within the singular idea that the self, in which you truly express the certainty of who you cannot not be, the reflection of light would become increasingly meaningless to you, are you ready, very simply because you don't want it anymore. The idea of obtaining a real world can be nothing in its most fundamental sense but a rejection of the image that you foster about your self, in a determination to represent your self as that body form.

All of the great practices of Master Teacher, when he was here in a correspondence with Jesus, were to say to you, very simply, let's practice just a moment, "I am not a body, I am free, I am still as God created me." What am I free of? I freed myself just a moment from the illusion that I would have to find correspondence with my self. I am now healed and perfect in a totality of an image, listen, that while it remains a fractured idea of my self, within the containment, it has no inherent conflict in the idea that I can, at each moment, accept responsibility for the entirety of what I am, because of the power that's inherent in me, by the new perspective reality, based on my certainty, practice, that all power is in fact given on Heaven and earth to me in my mind, little more about the power of light.

To you, then, light is crucial. Isn't it? Denial of light leads to failure to perceive it. Failure to perceive light is to perceive darkness. The light is useless to you then, even though it is there. You cannot use it because its presence is unknown to you. And the seeming reality if the darkness makes the idea of light meaningless.

Now, what am I going to employ in this teaching of the power of your light? Say to me, "Do you intend to give me a better reflection of my self?" I'll wait. Let's practice together the idea that we are already reflecting to our selves what we think we are. There, I see you out there as a body identity along with other body identity associations, in correspondence of light that each of you reflects back to himself, in determination to continue to organize, within the illusion of light that this matrix of energy of light is actually true. And you know it's not.

The idea that there is another world that you can see, through the denial of this, are the power that are inherent in you by a simple decision that you can make within this beautiful lesson about the idea of light and power. Listen.

To be told that what you do not see is there sounds like insanity. It is very difficult to become convinced that it is insanity not to see it, and to see what is not there instead. Why? You do not doubt that the body's eyes can see. You do not doubt the images they show you are reality. Why? Your faith lies in the darkness, not the light. How can this be reversed? For you it's not possible –

Did you hear me? – but listen:

Your efforts, however little they may be, have very strong support. Did you but realize how great this strength, your doubt would vanish. Now what are we going to do? We are going to devote ourselves to the attempt to let you feel this strength that's really in you. When you have felt the strength in you, which makes all miracles within your easy reach, you won't doubt them. Why? The miracles your sense of weakness hides will leap into awareness as you feel the strength in you.

And we are going to demonstrate together, shall we, within the procedures of this mind training, of a simple lesson that we will never be able to see two worlds and that available to us, at this instant, is the totality of the moment of illusion, in which was constructed the idea that we could be in a containment of time and find ourselves in sequentiality of body formulation that identified the images within space/time of longevity, pertaining to a conceptual notation that the body form that we represent to each other is a totality within the necessity to subtract ourselves from the single illusion that we represent, so that what? the reflection that we're giving back to ourselves, in the nature of our human condition is going to say to me, "Well I know, what you say, or at least I entertain, within my own mind, the possibility that all of the power, which comes from Eternal Life, from God, is available to me, but that I am very simply not utilizing, in the necessity to allow a continuing alteration of my ideas of time, in order to perform, to instruct, within my self a determination of who I really am, within that reflection." Here, listen one more sentence about instructing, real quickly.

This is accomplished very simply, as you instruct yourself that you are not a body. Did you see? Why? Faith goes to what you want, and you instruct your mind accordingly. Your will remains your teacher, and your will has all strength to do what it desires. You can escape the body (right now, at this time) if you choose. And have an experience of a new light formulation. You can experience the strength in you.

And our first twenty seven minutes of exchange of the power of our mind, to find correspondence in a continuing parallel idea of the inevitability of the singularity of life is upon us. I brought with me, and I am going to offer to you in the second half hour, with your permission, the idea that we found in the science magazine about parallel Universes. It's very interesting, in the perspective that it might be possible for you to understand, by the very nature of ourselves in light correspondence, that somewhere out in the Universe is a true reflection of our self. Is that inevitable? You going to listen to me, and then we'll leave here, and I'll be back. If you are able to get any reflection whatsoever, within the idea that you are in a relationship of space/time, and we're going to teach it here so you can see it, as a parallel Universe, what you will see with me is the parallel Universe of your association with your self, somewhere in all the Universe cannot not contain a moment of the entirety of the correspondence that's going to represent us. Here's our problem, ok, and I am going to read it to you. Until we can find it within the perspective of the objective denial of it, within our need to locate ourselves in time, we can never see it, because the idea that there is something running parallel to us, be it even an infinite number of Universe, can never gratify my certainty, within the power of my mind, are you listening, that there is one mind and that one mind is what we share with God. Certainly if we believe that we're separated within the light form, we're going to need a better reflection of ourselves right now, and I see you're beginning to get it.

So we are going to disappear, here and now, just for a moment, and we'll be returning. How much time will pass in the interlude, between our parallel Universe? How much time are you going to need to see a single true reflection of your self, in the nature of what I know that you know that we know that we are? And the joy of that occasion is now increasing in the intensity of self recognition that expresses our love for each other. I'll be right back. Remember God goes with us wherever we go, because God is the entirety of the mind that we're employing to repair the possibility of an illusion. I'll see you in just a moment.

“The Attainment Of The Real World”

Undoing Parallel Universes

WITH MASTER TEACHER

Oh, we are in a parallel observation of ourselves. Will you stay with me? As you know I am called the Master Teacher, for whatever reason you want to give me, I am an instructor, ok, this is from my savior Jesus, who comes along with you from out of time and offers you a perspective of the entirety of a true illusion of what you are. Is that all right with you? In the mind of Universal Mind, we teach a very fundamental concept that no matter how you view your self, in the arrangement of what you think are objective associations of reflections, are you listening, there is only going to be one mind. Now, if the one mind you are, operates in a procedure of a reflection of light that inevitably is weakened by the loss of power, in the idea of containment, within a perspective of parallel, or separate objective Universes, without the simple quantum idea that is not connected to a cause and effect relationship within your concepts, such will it be with you.

So let's look together, remember the first half hour about the parallel Universes as a major idea within the perspective of your self? Listen.

Parallel Universes, not just a staple of science fiction, other Universes are a direct implication of cosmological observation. Is there a copy of you, reading this article? A person who is not you, but who lives on a planet called earth with misty mountains, fertile fields and sprawling cities, in a solar system with eight other planets? The life of this person has been identical to yours in every respect, but perhaps he or she now decides to put down this article without finishing it while you read on. Look. The idea of such an alter ego seems strange and impossible, but it looks as if we will just have to live with it, because it is supported by astronomical observation. The simplest and most popular cosmological model today, listen, predicts that you have a twin in a Universe about ten to the ten twenty eight meters from here. This distance is so large that it is beyond astronomical, but that does not make your doppelganger any less real. The estimate is derived from elementary possibility, and does not even assume speculative modern physics, merely that space is infinite, or at least sufficiently large in size and almost uniformly filled with matter, as observation indicate. In infinite space, even the most unlikely events must take place somewhere. There are infinitely many other inhabited planets including not just one, but infinitely many that have people with the same appearance, name and memory as you who play out every possible permutation of your life choices. Look. You will probably never see your other selves. The furthest you can observe, look, is a distance that light is been able to travel doing fourteen billion years since the big bang expansion began. The more distant visible objects are now about four to the tenth twenty six meters, a distance that defines our observable Universe, and you think somehow they are the most straight forward example of parallel Universe. Each Universe is merely a small part of a larger multiverse.

What a joyful idea that you would entertain the perspective, within the idea of parallel Universes. Anyone within a reasonable procedure, I am speaking directly to you now as an instructor, within the possibility of his own mind, has simply made the admission of the inevitability of another likeness of you, in its entirety within your own mind, very simply because in any practice or reasonableness you'd be able to see that finally there is only one mind. Can you see that? So that my offering to you obviously is not concerned with the billions of other reflections you get within your own idea about your self, very simply because there is no possibility that they can express to you, within the illusion of the parallelnessness of Universe more than you would want to see within the perspective of the idea that there is such a thing as duplicity, within a self containment that retains itself within that light form. Do you see that? Remember when Master Jesus, when the Teacher was here and taught you from the perspective of satellite the idea that when you were healed, within the idea of separate formulations of reflected ideas of parallel Universes that you were not healed alone? Shall I remind you of that?

Shall I remind you that, as what you term Master Teacher, that I have come in to a reflection of a story that you have about your self, concerning the infinite number of reflected light associations that are actually all contained within a simple parameter of inclusion of the fundamental inevitability, remember our teaching, in the idea of the event horizon there, that no matter how far you go out in the parallel idea of your self, you cannot not end up exactly where you started. Now, if you'll accept this from me, this will increase the intensity of the power of your mind to recognize if it is true in the story about a parallel Universes that somewhere out there, from the beginning of time to the end of time, there will be a duplication of your own light reflection of your self. Look with me, why would it have to be out there if you inevitably are going to end up back exactly where the initial parallel idea of separation occurred, within what is termed a location in space/time. Do you see that? Now, practice of the idea of the illusion healing of the body, because I would not want to leave you stranded in the idea that you are going to have to do infinite searches in regard to the number of billions of time you will find parallel Universe rather than your self. Try not to be ridiculous. The mere idea of possibility, within conceptual ideas of your self cannot not include any solution, and since any solution of what you are within your own mind is based on the entirety of the Universe, your simple explanation to your self will reveal to you a new image of your self where the idea that when you are healed you are not healed alone, will allow you to see a reflection of ourselves that perfectly heal us in recognition initially of our separation in our parallel Universes and than an instant of light where the glorious love of our identity allows us to escape the conflict that has brought us around and around in this circle. There is one little paragraph in the idea when I am healed that I am not healed alone, within the illusion. It's been red to you in one of your illuminate ideas that within the matrix of the truth of separation, the truth of you was simply sitting here waiting for you. Listen to this. When I am healed I am healed along with you. Here we go.

When you are healed you are not healed alone. Why? For healing is the opposite of all the world's ideas which dwell on sickness and on separate states. Sickness is a retreat from others, and a shutting off of joining. It becomes a door that closes on a separate self, and keeps it isolated and alone.

And that's what's happening within your correspondence of objective association. Shall I tell you why it's going to be in this little article, why you're afraid to be whole and perfect? Ok? The idea of the entirety of the power of your mind that would be inevitable in any light decision, are you listening, is all the power of the Universe, and if you begin on a continuing bases to imply all of the power of the Universe, you will, in a consistent manner, and finally each moment, begin to get a better reflection of your self in your relationship with who you think you are, within the dream of space/time that heretofore has held you in a circular parallel association of Universes without any single moment of communication, very simply because at any single moment the entirety of your correspondence with your self, within the light would show you the power of the light that we describe when we talked about the miracle, as identified within the idea of the weakness and the littleness of you that finds other parallel stories out there that justify your idea of your self. When I am healed I am not healed alone, shows you and presents to you the idea of the availability of another dream. Can you see this with me? This is the idea of parallel Universe within dimensional associations. Listen.

So, It is impossible that anyone be healed alone. Very simply because he's reflect to himself his own sickness. In sickness must he be apart and separate. But healing is his own decision to be one again, and to accept his Self with all his parts intact and unassailed. In sickness does his Self appear to be dismembered, and without the unity that gives It Life. But healing is accomplished as he sees the body has no power to attack the universal oneness of God's Son.

Look.

Sickness would prove that lies must be the truth.

Sickness would prove that in the light reflection of your own mind, within the containment of this little isolation, you have been getting innumerable reflections of your self that are somehow contained in the idea that location can be separate. So the entire teaching of me, in this idea of parallel Universes, is only to remember this, no matter how far you go out in your idea to keep your brother separate from you, it is inevitable that the time will come and did when just for a moment you will lay down the defenses of your self that have objectified the conflict and loss and death and loneliness and attack and war of this world, in your determination to retain the idea that it would be possible, within the illusion of a single whole mind to be anything but perfect.

So in this parallel Universe, what are we going to offer you? Initially perhaps, in the quantum idea, it's a figment of re-association of a correspondence of light; we used to call this an entanglement of the idea of the power of your mind to decide on a universal reality in a specific location. Now, when you do that out in parallel Universes, it results in specific location that become entangled within the light form and at that moment do in fact represent escape from time.

The Old Man when he was here, Master Teacher, loved the idea of quantum entanglement. It's a simple idea that's impossible that you don't know the guy out there in the parallel idea are your self, no matter how you are determined to keep him separate. So the whole idea of quantum is the availability of instant communication somewhere in time. If that is true, and I am representing it to you as true, you're going to have to lay down, obviously, the objective defenses of your self. This is from the savior of this world, in the resurrection of my body, that as long as you insist on a reflection of another parallel Universe, you'll have to define it in separation and find in guilt and judgment somebody separate from your self, within your own mind, who is responsible for your own illusion. Is it possible for me to offer you a repair of that, based on the light factor of our mutual intent to love each other without regard to the consequences that were inevitable in the idea of the consequence of a parallel Universe? It would have to be true if all power is given unto you in Heaven and earth, any consequence within time would be a definition of itself in continuing separation, projected into the future and resulting in another fourteen thousand million years. I am in, and I am going to use the term and read it to you, the dream of your association of your self, reminding you, in your entirety, that when I am healed, in the definition of my self, it is impossible that you will not be healed along with me. Ok? When I am healed I am not healed alone. Listen.

Sickness would prove that lies must be the truth, because they are separation. But healing demonstrates that truth is true. Why? The separation sickness would impose has never really happened. To be healed is merely to accept what always was the simple truth, and always will remain exactly as it has forever been. But you look with me, human. Yet eyes accustomed to illusions (of fracturedism of light) must be shown that what they look upon is false. So healing, never needed by the truth, must demonstrate that sickness is not real. Listen to this now.

Healing (in the mind training) might thus be called a counter-dream, which cancels out the dream of sickness in the name of truth, but not in truth itself. Just as forgiveness overlooks all sins that never were accomplished, healing but removes illusions that have not occurred. Just as the real world will arise to take the place of what has never been at all, healing but offers restitution for imagined states and false ideas which dreams embroider into pictures of the truth.

So we have an idea that we can recognize, within our own relationship with our self, in a single performance of the immediacy of the availability of your light, ok, remember when we talked about shining of light, that we can communicate with each other in a determination to momentarily release the defenses of the objectivity that has apparently in our parallel Universes held you separate from me, because the simple truth of the matter is that at any single moment, within the entirety of the reflection of your formulation of body, you can see that everything that appeared to be coming back to you in a reflection of your self was only the distance you maintain in the light formulation in the idea of a distance of light. Remember, a hundred and eighty six thousand miles a second and it's still going to take you three thousand million years to arrive at a continuing fracturazation of your mind, within your own idea of body formulation.

You trust me just for a moment; this is what you term an advanced teacher, in the idea that I would offer you my certainty of the singularity of your mind. I am together with you now on this representation of the illusion of light form, expressing to you my certainty that we can be healed in an instant, by a redefinition of ideas that we have about ourselves. I went to considerable length, and I hope it has value to you, to reason to you about the prospect of ultimately the impossibility of duplicity, or the idea that things in separate locations can actually be separate, except in the containment of your own location, which represents the body form that appears to get old and to die, within separate relationship, is nothing but the necessity for a counter-illusion, one that would show you, within the dark mass form of energy idea of light, the totality of the possibility for the conversion of that light. There was a beautiful reflection of light for you on that association; there was a beautiful reflection of you in a demonstration of the correspondence of our healing capacity. Here is a perfect demonstration of the capacity for you, in assuming your role of the idea of savior ship to take on your self the obligation to express the power of mind that's inherent in you, by your simple desire for it. Ok? So the repetition of this Course in Miracles is nothing but the necessity to continually repeat, within your own observation of your self, the truth of the inevitability, you will get the result of what you think you are, in the reflection of your self. And if you think you can be contained in that reflection of death and loneliness and death in your body, so will it be with you, and suddenly within the drama of this idea of this little earthly place appears a light form and he looks at you in your own mind and makes a genuine inquiry concerning your self, "Who are you and what are you doing here." You immediately respond to him within the parallel Universe by reflecting back to your self what you believe you are within the fracturedism of light when you know perfectly well that's not who you are, and in fact you have no idea, within your constitution of body form who you are.

That fifty seven minutes that had just occurred within the fabric of the idea of parallel Universe actually was an excess of a thousand years, all you really did was begin to ?? a better reflection of your self, contained within your self, which is amplified by light ideas. Can I come back and do one more fifty seven minute interlude? Now I am going to close down this section of time, just for a moment. I am not concerned about what the world is occurring out there, but I am concerned that within the structures imposed by this world, it's possible for you to gather in associations of a new continuum of time that it is impossible to be recognized within this apparent source of reality. I'll be right back. Remember God goes with us wherever we go in the observation of the truth of what we are, so that we can say together, "God bless us, each and every one, at this moment."
