A COURSE IN MIRACLES

*This is a required course.
Only the time you take it is voluntary.
Free will does not mean that you can establish the curriculum.
It means only that you can elect what you want to take at a given time.*

*This course does not aim at teaching the meaning of love...
for that is beyond what can be taught.
It does aim, however, at removing the blocks to the awareness of love's presence, which is your natural inheritance.*

*The opposite of love is fear...
But what is all-encompassing can have no opposite.
Nothing real can be threatened.
Nothing unreal exists.
Herein lies the peace of God.*

The truth of love has rushed to meet you since you called upon it. If you knew Who walks beside you on the way that you have chosen, fear would be impossible. You do not know because the journey into darkness has been long and cruel, and you have gone deep into it. A little flicker of your eyelids, closed so long, has not yet been sufficient to give you confidence in yourself, so long despised. You go toward love still hating it, and terribly afraid of its judgment upon you. And you do not realize that you are not afraid of love, but only of what you have made of it. You are advancing to love's meaning, and away from all illusions in which you have surrounded it. When you retreat to the illusion your fear increases, for there is little doubt that what you think it means IS fearful. Yet what is that to us who travel surely to our solution?

Look.

Each instant that we spend together will teach you that the goal is possible, and will strengthen your desire to reach it. And in your desire lies its accomplishment. Your desire is now in complete accord with all the power of the Holy Spirit's Will. No little, faltering footsteps that you may take can separate your desire from His Will and from His strength. Here's Jesus. I hold your hand as surely as you agreed to take your brother's. You will not separate, for I stand with you and will walk with you in your advance to truth. And where we go we carry God with us.

It's good to see you again in the perspective of the idea that we intend to share within whatever our ratio of correspondence with ourself within the dream is, that it's possible for us, in the immediacy of a correspondence, in the entirety of the universe, to find first a moment of peace and happiness, which we immediately begin to question within our own perspective, for the simple fear that it might be true.

This is our Course In Miracles. It's a mind training, in which you can continue to operate on the possibility that the entirety of what appears to be out there, is actually only within your own dream. In that last hour that lasted for fifty-seven minutes, many within our illusionary association are beginning to recognize each other within the fabric of light that has caused us to momentarily continue the illusion. In fact, the light that we've been seeing within our own dimness of responsibility has not been capable of showing us a true light. What does Master Paul say in the New Testament? "We look through a mirror darkly, but the time will come and did when we can get a true reflection of ourself," and there was one, and here is another, and just for a moment you have released the defensive nature of the reflection of yourself that has held you in the bondage of dim light. In the correspondence of ourselves in the idea of conceptual self-realization, the necessity that you understand in it's most fundamental sense that light, Universal Mind, is the power of your mind.

Practice: "All power is given unto me in Heaven and in earth. There is absolutely nothing that I can't do." Now let's look at our fundamental difficulty within the illusion. Are we afraid of that power? Of course. The utilization of the power, in the idea that it's possible for us to be less fearful of the idea of the retention of a reflection of ourself in the idea of the dream, is why we're here.

Let's practice together just for a moment, ok? Say to me: There is another world that I can see. Within the idea of the illusion, going on simultaneously with all your efforts to find correspondence with yourself, is a brighter, more true, happier, more gratifying self, contained within you.

Now, practice: I am not a body. I am free momentarily of the illusion of dreaming in the stricture that everybody within his own association is actually walking around in a dream. Can you see that with me? We have dreams of all that are going on within our separate minds that contain continuing evidences of light and love to which we respond with the idea of an association of time at the speed of light that doesn't allow us to see that each moment we were only getting a reflection of ourself within body form.

Practice healing: you are whole and perfect as you were created. Here, think with me about our love now. Now, come on! You're using your body reference of thought – remember when we read in the last idea that you have fractured mind? How many different diseases [laughing] can you name about your body formulation?

I'm Master Teacher, incidentally. I underwent an incredible enlightening experience that showed me the entirety of the unreality of this world in any form. When I appear within – through the message of my savior Jesus – the certainty of the possibility for your resurrection, within a body form, I'm simply momentarily offering you a conversion of light that in the light form has always brought you back to where you started within the fracturedism of yourself. Can you see this with me? You're always seeing yourself in your body form as gone, or in the future of your body form with no admission whatsoever that present with you, at this time, is actually the entirety of your body. And that formulation of light can show you, if you let it, that in the truth of the wholeness of us, I have absolutely no concern about your body whatsoever, and neither will you, if you'll momentarily allow a perspective of a brighter association of light to begin to alter the association of your body form which are going on in any event within your sequence determination to continue the illusion of the longevity in which you can look at me as a seventy seven year old man. Are you going to hear this with me? How about eighty? How about twenty? How about thirty? You're in the illusion where you construct a body formulation, and actually believe there's other bodies out there corresponding to you. It's not true. What I'm offering you at this moment, in this dream, is our certainty that a new dream is available to you, through the momentary laying down of the defenses of yourself, in which the body construct of light of yourself will shine in an illumination that makes the pitiful example of the dead ones, within their own containment, look like nothing.

Now, what was the fundamental necessity? Certainly, the admission that this is a dream, will give you the perspective that, if it's actually an illusion, why would you be concerned about it? The idea that you can change your mind about yourself, now takes on a whole new perspective, because the simple truth of the matter now is what? There is nothing outside of YOU. We look out together within the illusion of light correspondence, we get a reflection back into ourself that justifies the idea of our location, it's not true. At any single moment you can decide that you've had enough of this dream, and you'll disappear. The reflections that you struggle to maintain are only your fear of the loss of you. From our Course, listen to this.

Why would you not be overjoyed to be assured that all the evil that you think you did was never done, that all your sins are nothing, that you are as pure and wholly as you were created, and that light and joy and peace abide in you? Your images of yourself cannot withstand the Will of God. You think that this is death, but it is life. You think you are destroyed, but you are saved.

I'm back for just a moment, because peace and love and joy are abiding in you. What I'm trying to get you to do, just for a moment, is entertain the fundamental idea – are you going to listen? – this isn't life. The very fundamental idea that if you're actually dreaming, within your own association of yourself, you have to come to a point within your own mind where you said, and many of you had, "Hold it a minute. This is a dream." Yet notice how you attempt to control your dream within your own idea about yourself. Jesus always reminds us in the testament about Adam, that when he went east of Eden and fell asleep, there's positively no indication that the whole civilization of man is not dreaming, and if you look at the perspective of the limitation you're imposing on yourself at this time, it can become increasingly obvious to you – when? – at each moment – listen – not a moment that's gone by; that would keep the body, because it would project it into the future and you would live within a body – say to me longevity – longevity of time, in the idea that somewhere within your own arrangement you are representing yourself from the time time began until it ended; remember how we decided that it was fourteen and a half thousand million years? Yet at any instant we may look at the certainty that it is impossible, if we have an idea of time or longevity in our mind, we can not not have contained within us the idea of something that began before life and after it was over. One thing for sure, if you continue to dream the dream of death, contained within that body formulation, such will it be with you.

You've checked the references of my body form, you are determined to believe that I'm – what did we decide? – a seventy-seven year old guy, that this little earth has gone around this little, pitiful sun seventy-seven times, and I've about used up all of this idea – we always go to hydrogen and oxygen and carbon, there is a nitrogen cloud surrounding me, and I'm going to finally just have to give up and descend into the power of the idea of the inevitability of death. Do you want to look with me at this? That's ridiculous. Not only is it ridiculous, but you know it doesn't make any sense. It's impossible, if I am corresponding with you somewhere in time, that you are not seeking the truth and happiness that we seem to be finding together. Yet when we find them, since we're not getting a true reflection of our body formulation, it immediately begins to deteriorate and has to be continually reorganized in the specialization of the illusion of particle and wave identities that have fractured us in the billions of ideas of form within the illusion of Universal Mind, where when I am with you right now, I'm going to offer you a reflection deep, deep down, where your fear really lies, deep down within you. Remember, we have to come back into our body form – don't we? – it's not out there. But remember this, the more we begin to look within this mind training at the perspective of the possibility of a true us – ready? Say to me, ready? – the more fearful I will become. How could you not? Suddenly, all of the power of gravity is beginning to cave in on you, and you're determined to protect yourself within that illusion of light. Yet, it's inevitable that joy and peace do not reside in your idea of the illusion in its entirety. Listen.

The self you made is not the Son of God. Therefore, this self does not exist at all. And anything it seems to do and think means absolutely nothing. It is neither bad nor good. It is unreal, and nothing more than that. It does not battle with the Son of God. It does not hurt him, nor attack his peace. It has not changed creation, nor reduced eternal sinlessness to sin, and love to hate. What power can this self you made possess, when it would contradict the Will of God?

Just a little more.

Salvation, the truth of you, requires the acceptance of but one thought: You are as God created you, not what you made of yourself. Whatever evil you may think you did, you are as God created you. Whatever mistakes you made, the truth about you is unchanged. Creation is eternal and unalterable. Look. Your sinlessness, your wholeness, your love is guaranteed by God. You are and will forever be exactly as you were created.

Now, let's look at yourself.

You are what God created or what you made. One Self is true; the other is not there. Try to experience the unity of your one Self. Try to appreciate Its holiness and the Love from Which It was created. Try not to interfere with the Self Which God created as you, by hiding Its majesty behind the tiny idols of evil and sinfulness you have made to replace It. Why? Let It come into Its Own. Here you are; This is you. And light and joy and peace abide in you because this is so.

Are you listening to me?

Your sinlessness is guaranteed by God.

The idea, in the formulation of our mind training, that you would accept this in its most fundamental sense, is giving me a great deal of joy. It can be carried into the procedure idea that, if you'd like to look at your relationship of the formulation of your body, the simple truth of the matter, which your body within your own mind has been constructed as fearful and guilty and lonely and lost and contained, is nothing but a momentary determination within your own mind that somehow you could have been separated, within eternal life, into a place of space/time, where the displacement of you gave you a reflection of yourself within the light formulation of you, in the dream of the idea of this formulation, with a very fundamental admission that out in the universe are not only billions of other stars, beside this one little seventy-seven year old body formulation, but billions of galaxies of light energy, that if you'll look with me now in the simplicity of what I am offering you, you will immediately enter into a very fundamental admission of the necessity – practice. Say to me: Self. Self. Look with me. Whatever you think you are, in the fragmentation of your idea about yourself, can not not be the correspondence you are finding within space/time – look – and since you're in this causal loop of Universal Mind that keeps coming around again, and around again, each time you appear to find the solution, your fear is so intense – are you listening? – that you annihilate yourself within the idea of the illusion. Yet, since annihilation of the truth of you is impossible, you end back up in another fractured idea about yourself contained within the dream.

Look with me now, about your willingness to begin to employ the power that the decision is yours to make. Say to me: The decision is mine. I didn't hear you out there. I'm not taking decision away from you; I'm giving it to you. You have a very fundamental fear that the actual decision about this is yours to make. Yet it's inevitably true. Why are you afraid of it? It will require a very fundamental admission that what is going on out in this world, is actually going on within your own mind. In a literal sense, it's not out there. In the practicality of the admission of love, we can find momentarily within our own relationship our certainty that at any moment in all of space/time we may depart this location in the idea of the illusion of light determination of ourself – look with me – very simply – ok? – because as a mind trainer of the Course, coming from outside of this parameter of time, through the resurrection of the author of Jesus in this Course In Miracle conversion, at any moment, as we come back into the idea of time, we have speeded up, within our correspondence of our determination to die, to the point – look with me – that you might want to see that the idea that you are that forty six year old lady out there, or that eighty two year old guy over there, or that new fractured idea of body form, have nothing at all to do with what I am offering you in my certainty that in the matrix of light form all of your bodies will be nothing but illusions. Yet, it's impossible, by the simple perspective that I am now within your dream, that somewhere within the idea of duplicity, of fear, of loss, of death, of loneliness, if you have accepted the fundamental idea of self-responsibility, you can simply decide with me, at this moment, that the self that's deciding for you, is no longer the self that you want, and that you would prefer, somewhere within your own perspective, the idea of yourself is actually eternal, forever in the Mind of God, in the extension of love from a Creative Source of which you are a whole part.

Here's what's happening now in the passing of the dream. I've come into your dream. Now, you're still in a perspective of dreaming. Yet within that dream, since it's changing each moment any time, we can actually take ideas of a scrip about yourself within your own dream and literally cut them out of the provision of the idea that you would have to be trapped in the body. That's how Master Teacher performs re-arrangement of his own body.

We have to leave you for two and a half minutes. When I come back to you within this last hour and a half, there will be so much alteration within your own idea about body form that I'll have to invite you to return, in order just to reflect back to me the light that you're feeling, in the love that we're expressing for each other. Thank you [laughing], because at any moment you have discovered, through the occupation of yourself in dreaming form, in the dream, that you can leave whenever you want to, because God goes with us wherever we go – all right? – and we can join together in a moment of the entirety of the illusion and disappear into the certainty that He IS with us at this moment.

A COURSE IN MIRACLES

“The Passing of The Dream” Our Dreams of Love Come True At Last

WITH MASTER TEACHER

I feel a great deal of joy, and – I know I am an instructor; I love to teach. So do you. There’s no way that you would accept the function offered you by Jesus in the Course In Miracles that says very simply that once you have trained your mind sufficiently in your willingness to accept responsibility for yourself that you will not take it out into the world, because the very nature of you continues to depend on the alteration of yourself in body form, so that the miracle of healing of the body, through the original message of our savior Jesus, can be performed.

When we left you here, in the two minutes that have intervened, many of you have assumed perfect bodies, in momentarily ideas of the instant possibility that you’re whole and perfect, to the point, if you trust me with this, that in that instant, within any frame of time out in the universe, you can simply be gone. Now, obviously I can’t speak of what’s outside of the parameter of your space/time, but I can assure you in the practice of our self-identity – are you going to hear this with me? – that whatever you think you are, is not true. This is not life. Life is not getting old and sick and dying. Life is not the idea within your illusion that you can suffer loss. Life is a continuing replication that finally arrives at the singularity of you within your own mind relationship. This is the offering to you of the conversion of your mind.

Practice: I am the light of the world. Say it. Remember when Master Jesus said, “You brought this light with you when you came from outside of time.” You brought it into a place that immediately was fearful to you because the reflection you got of yourself was not momentarily the truth of who you are. Look. An adjustment to the idea of the particulars of your own illusion has been made. Trust me with this. This is what the resurrection is. To avail yourself of it, is simply to determine that the problem cannot be solved within the illusion of the projections of your own mind out there. I've led you back now, into this moment that we spoke of, of fear. Trust me. There is nothing to fear. God is going with us wherever we go. Yes, you are being led, back into the idea of the containment of you that is continually being converted and extending further out into the universe, and each time you come back in with yourself, within the idea of the black hole – trust me with this – you emerge further along in time than you were when you came in. And finally, in the loop of your association with yourself, you stand for a moment in the power of forgiveness and begin to oscillate in the idea of a tremendous light power that's available to you in our mutual conversion of each other.

That was very nice. Thank you. Will the world of the dead ones understand you when you begin to perform self-recognition within your own mind? How could they possibly understand you? There isn't anything out there! The reflection you're getting, within the matrix of energy, is totally meaningless; it has no causation. Now, your protest to that will not make it less true. You listen to me. Your decision, through will, to allow for the possibility of an alternative, will always be enhanced in its entirety by the simple admission that GOD IS and YOU AIN'T. The idea that the self that you want to willfully employ to destroy yourself in the relationship you have with yourself, finally has reached the point within your own mind, where you have fundamentally entertained the idea of forgiveness, because until you do, the idea that you can only love your brother – ok? – will always leave you with the notion that while you can love, that pain and death outside of you must continue. That's the illusion of the dream of death that we're correcting. Listen now, just a little more, to the Passing of the Dream, because this pertains to us within our shared illusion.

Here we are. I need do nothing.

You still have too much faith in the body as a source of strength. What plans do you make that do not involve its comfort or protection or enjoyment in some way? This makes the body an end and not a means in your interpretation, and this always means you still find sin attractive. No one accepts Atonement for himself who still accepts the idea of separation as his goal. You have thus not met your ONE responsibility. Atonement is not welcomed by those who prefer pain and destruction.

I'm going to teach you for a moment if you'll let me, and I'm going to practice with you the idea that everything you entertain within your own correspondence of yourself – and this was in the whole idea of DNA; what makes you who you are? – is that in fact in your DNA association with yourself the manner in which you arrive at the truth of yourself is to momentarily tone yourself off, or turn yourself off, in the idea of the replication of your right and light of self. At that moment, increased in you will be the light, because in that moment in the idea of an alternative with the fracturedism of your body, you will find the peace that for many of you first occurred in the idea of prayer, or the idea of 'Thy Will be done,' or the idea 'God, I can't,' or the idea

'Will you help me.' It's impossible that if you genuinely ask for the help for the Light of God within your idea of your DNA, the idea of the structure of you in the multitude of multiplicity that doesn't allow you to see the simplicity of you, you will have a tendency to turn yourself on within the illusion, and live again within that illusion, and in the living within the illusion you will use up the particle/wave associations of yourself and die. The manner in which you can come to know God – all right? – is nothing but a moment of determination within yourself that God is. Nothing but the certainty that the Will of Universal Mind is being done in you, in its entirety, regardless of the idea you have about yourself – are you listening? – and you know exactly of what I am speaking. It's impossible that from the beginning of the maturation, in the idea of a supplement of power of light that would give you strength within your own conceptual mind that was not connected to the fracturedism of your body and brought about perhaps a momentarily healing of you through the joy and love that we share, was inevitable in the miracle of the idea that any moment that you actually have a body within the illusion, it will be perfect. Could you see that with me? Since it's impossible God is not everything, a momentary illusion of yourself in formulation can show you in your mind the joy that we intend to share as we reflect back to each other a single whole body. Listen.

There is one thing that you have never done; you have not utterly forgotten the body. It has perhaps faded at times from your sight, but it has not yet completely disappeared. Look. You are not asked to let this happen for more than an instant, yet it is in this instant that the miracle of Atonement happens. Afterwards you will see the body again, but never quite the same. And every instant that you spend without awareness of it gives you a different view of it when you return.

Look with me. Listen to this.

At no single instant does the body exist at all. It is always remembered or anticipated, but never experienced just NOW. Only its past and future make it seem real. Why? Time controls it entirely, for sin, separation, is never wholly in the present. Look with me. In any single instant the attraction of guilt would be experienced as pain and nothing else, and would be avoided, because it would have no attraction right NOW. Its whole attraction is imaginary, and therefore must be thought of in the past or in the future.

One more sentence.

It is impossible to accept the holy instant without reservation unless, just for an instant, you are willing to see no past or future. Look with me. Important. You cannot prepare for it without placing it in the future. Release is given you the instant you desire it. Many have spent a lifetime in preparation, and have succeeded in achieving some instances of happiness. Look. This course does not attempt to teach more than they learned in time, but it does aim to shorten the idea of yourself within time in the simple admission that you need do nothing.

So the happiness that we're expressing to each other, within the idea of dream conflict and loneliness and death, will be in the particulars where, as you have moved on within your own body formulation, you have had experiences of what you thought was life within form in which you died. Yet in the moment of death, in that moment, there is no death, and the idea of death immediately caused a continuing construction of yourself in the idea of the power of your mind. Look with me, my dear one. The love that I'm going to express for you right now within the world can contain hundreds of demonstrations of the love we found for each other in our minds, in our need to serve each other and find joy and happiness within the correspondences of our body. Yet, each time we found it, we suffered from a conclusion of our own determination to justify the idea that the power of mind to remain in conflict and separate contained within our own self, could only lead us once again to death.

Here is actually what I'm offering you in our Course In Miracles. Each one of you as a human being is a memory factor of the entirety of all of space and time. Each human condition contains within himself the certainty of the entirety of what he is in a memory of sequential time that keeps returning to its place of origin, be it fourteen thousand million years. What you are beginning to realize with me that we can actually shorten the distance of the perspective of your identity, as proclaiming the nature of you as a decaying body form, by the simple admission, in the miracle, that when you change your mind about yourself, as you did just then, your whole body formulation changed. Is that true? The new light of refraction that you're getting within your own dream right now, is giving you a great deal of feel and joy and happiness, for many of you for no apparent reason at all. Why? The moment within your own mind yourself you ask for help, not in the perspective of the retention of your body formulation, it occurred, and is happening at this instant. Listen.

Your way will be different, not in purpose but in means. A holy relationship is a means of saving time. Look. One instant spent together with your brother restores the universe to both of you. You ARE prepared. Now you need but to remember you need do nothing. It would be far more profitable now merely to concentrate on this, that you need do nothing, than to consider what you should do. Let's say it together: I NEED DO NOTHING.

Here is the ultimate release which everyone will one day find in his own way, at his own time. You do not need this time. Time has been saved for you because you and your brother are actually together at the beginning and end of time. This is the special means this course is using to save you time. You are not making use of the course if you insist on using means which have served others well, neglecting what was made especially for YOU. Look. Save time for me by only this one preparation, and practice doing nothing else. "I need do nothing" is a statement of allegiance, a truly undivided loyalty. Believe it for just one instant, and you will accomplish more than is given to a century of contemplation, or of struggle against temptation.

One more sentence.

To do anything involves the body. And if you recognize you need do nothing, you have withdrawn the body's value from your mind. Look. Here is the quick and open door through which you slip past centuries of effort, and escape from time. This is the way in which sin loses all attraction RIGHT NOW. For here is time denied, and past and future are gone, and you're back home in Heaven in a remembrance that we momentarily came here together and now intend to leave.

I'm feeling very happy in the prospect that at last, as a – what do we call it? – a teacher of God, through the conversion of my own self-recognition, you have begun to see with me a true reflection of yourself within the illusion of this world. Practice: There is no world. I need do nothing to have the entirety restored to me, if in fact this world was actually over and gone a long time ago. Remember, time lasted but that moment in your mind, within the entirety of the universe, and had no effect on effect on time at all. Yet, the consistency of the practice can not not involve the idea of the shortening of the longevity of the illusion of time, because it's impossible, if you are in space/time, you do not believe in the possibility, both of time or an instant of being here, and of space which will have the longevity since the beginning and the end of time.

So we began with the idea today that the illusion of you, within the dream, was passing away, as all new light figures began to appear all around you in this new idea that a new space/time has arrived, because the old one is passed away. Let's go back to this whole fundamental idea of how we began this whole episode. Listen.

The awakening from the dream.

In your relationship you have joined with me in bringing Heaven to the Son of God, who hid in darkness. You have been willing to bring the darkness to light, and this willingness has given strength to everyone who would remain in darkness. Look with me. Those who would see WILL see. And they will join with me in carrying their light into the darkness, when the darkness in them is offered to the light, and is removed forever. Listen with me. My need for you, joined with me in the holy light of your relationship, is your need for salvation. Would I not give you what you gave to me? For when you joined your brother, you have answered me.

And just for a moment I'm going to get a true reflection of our recognition that through the resurrection we may join in the idea of salvation. Listen.

You who are now the bringer of salvation have the function of bringing light to darkness. The darkness in you has been brought back to light. Carry it back to darkness, from the holy instant to which you brought it. Listen. We are made whole in our desire to make whole. Let not time worry you, for all the fear that you and your brother experience is really already gone. Time has been readjusted to help us do, together, what your separate pasts would hinder. You have gone past fear, for no two minds can join in the desire for love without love's joining

Not one light in Heaven but goes with you. Not one ray that shines forever in the Mind of God but shines on you. Heaven is joined with us [you] in your advance to Heaven. When such great light have joined with you to give the little spark of your desire the power of God Himself, can you remain in darkness? Listen. You and your brother are coming home together, after a long and meaningless journey that you undertook alone [apart], and that led nowhere. You have found your brother, and you will light each other's ways. And from this light will the Great Rays extend back into darkness and forward unto God, to shine away the past and so make room for His eternal Presence, in which everything is radiant in the light.

I particularly want to thank you, as what is termed 'a teacher of God, for your willingness to accept in a very fundamental sense our determination that we can recognize ourself within the illusion. I'm expressing to you, through your predisposition to accept it within our illusion of body form, the certainty that the love that we feel for each other, and I particularly want to thank you, within this time frame, in how you have increased the idea of the necessity and the determination of love, simply by the release of judgment of each other. Do you see? Yes. I love you as a reflection of you in our determination that we share a single love. The self that you have brought into this parameter of light reflection is the self of eternal life, and in that moment, in that representation of the instant of our love, this world will be over and it will be gone, because the new dream that you have accepted shows you the entirety of your capacity to love, through the Love of God, for all of eternal life. Because certainly God goes with us wherever we go, being a reflection of a thought of God in which we are participating in our entirety. Let's say it together: God bless us, each and everyone, right here and right now, in this final moment of light, as we disappear in the new formulation of light in which this old world will be gone. Perhaps I'll see you on the other sight. I'll watch for you, you watch for me, but that time has come at last.
